Description of the Company

Pure mathematics can not lie! Oh, good grief. You know Jo, I sometimes think that military intelligence is a contradiction in terms. A straight line may be the shortest distance between two points, but it is by no means the most interesting. Jo, did you fail Latin as well as science? Well, I'll tell you something that should be of vital interest to you....That you, Sir, are a NITWIT! Jo, look. That's Skaro.
